

City & Guilds 6160-09 – Entrant and Entry Controller for Confined Spaces (Medium Risk)

Who should attend?

This course is suitable for anybody who will be working in a medium risk environment and includes preparing to work safely, entering and exiting medium risk confined spaces safely, using equipment and tools safely, following procedures and dealing with emergencies.

Course Aims & Objectives

This course is designed to reflect the national occupation standards for a medium risk related confined space environment. It covers both Water and Non-Water industry areas.

Water: this may include working with potable water, sewage treatment processes, drain and sewer cleaning operations or where the operative is working in or near water or where a Confined Space is subject to surface water flooding.

Non-water: This may include pharmaceutical, petrochemical, asbestos removal, vehicle manufacture and servicing, aeronautical, construction, communications, power, utilities, gas, electrical and mechanical engineering and some elements of work operations in mines, quarries and tunnelling.

Course Outline

- Prepare to work safely in medium risk confined spaces
- Enter & exit a medium risk confined space safely
- Work safely & monitor team work to ensure procedures are followed
- Deal with emergency situations,
- Understand the principals of working in medium risk confined spaces
- Understand standard protocols for work in medium risk confined spaces
- Understand entry controller duties & responsibilities
- Understand equipment checks & inspections required

Certification

Delegates will be required to complete and pass a practical observation and short answer question paper. On successful completion of the course candidates will be issued with a photo ID card and a City & Guilds Certificate which is valid for three years.

Duration

2 Days

Location

Ipswich